ABOUT ME

Hi! My name is Rodalyn

You can call me Lynn. Im a graphic designer with a deep love for branding and creating.

My creative journey strated not long after finishing my marketing studies, i ve always loved the creative field, and i knew it was time to finally invest my time in this field in a self-thaught way like i always did with all my hobbies, but this time, i realized that graphic design was going to take further than this.

After countless hours of work, lessons and a lot of personal development, I know that my path is to create.
